JOSEPH M. FREEDMAN
COUNSELLOR AND ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
LYCEUM THEATRE BUILDING
MEMPHIS, TENN.

MEMPHIS
JAN 16
5 1
1919
TENN.

Mrs. J. M. Freedman,
Pharmacist,
Bellevue Hospital, O. P. D.,
26th St. & 1st Ave.,
New York City, N. Y.

PHONES { MAIN 558
MEMPHIS 557

JOSEPH M. FREEDMAN
COUNSELLOR AND ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
~~LYCEUM THEATRE BUILDING~~ 137 So. Main St.
MEMPHIS, TENN.

January 16, 1919

My darling wifie:

Just received your precious letter of the 13th and believe me darling, I didn't know what to do. I certainly did send a night letter and paid 55 cents. I am going to bring suit against the telegraph company if they don't give me a satisfactory explanation. Another thing, I can't understand why you only got one letter when I wrote Saturday and you should have gotten Monday, the same time as you got the other one. I've been addressing all your letters to your dispensary, so you should had not been delayed in getting my mail. Don't worry, sweetheart mine, I am writing everyday, and tell mondear I've been a wief continue writing to her everyday, too. Perhaps by now, you are receiving the mail regularly. I deposited more than one letter to-day, but probably its delayed.

Again precious mine, don't worry. I feel O.K. Am taking care of myself. Will have Lazaar give me a thorough examination and send you the report.

Yes, darling, I've accepted my uncle's hospitality. Of course, I won't eat at my uncle's house, as that method still exists. You know what I mean. I am only living there. The room is nice & clean. Had a coal fire every night. Sleep with the window open, too. As a matter of fact, everything is much nicer than if I lived in another boarding house. You all it doesn't make me feel so lonesome.

To-day I landed the 3 cases. I must appear before the Grand Jury to-morrow morning in one of them. Your lonesome hubby is going to put someone in Jail. I think that by Monday I'll open for myself. The room next to Lazaar has been taken, but there is a room in the back, $15.00 per month, that I believe I'll take. I'll then be able to accept Lazaar's offer to use his telephones. He is just wild to have me be with him. I know, too, as you must know, its going to be a hard struggle, but, please God, it may mean my making, and after a while, you'll be with me. Thank you, darling, for your confidence & willingness to assist me financially as much as you can, but I don't think I'll do that all the same, it makes me supremely happy to feel I've such a splendid wife. No wonder, they all want to see you. Keep on, sweetheart, be brave and courageous, and I am sure, you will be happy forever after. Don't cry, darling, be cheerful, smile all the time and you will. Then pls know how better it will be. When I go to bed, I kiss your picture and always say "Goodnight, darling, pleasant dreams".

I am very glad that your foot is better. Please, honey, take good care of it. Don't forget, tootsie, as you know its mine, too, and I just love to take care of what's mine. Tell mondear to take care of herself as I am worried over her. Also tell her that she should write, as I haven't heard from her yet.

I forgot to tel you that the offer I was supposed to hear from on Wednesday, turned out a failure, as another fellow landed it before I had a chance. That's why I am going out for myself.

Remember, darling Annie, take good care of yourself. Don't grieve over my absence as I am sure our separation won't be for long.

With alway love to my darling, the best little wife in all the world, and with kisses & hugs galore,

Ever lovingly your Hubby.

Uncle Morris wishes to be remembered.